	The first half of 2019 has been exciting time at Bank of America Merrill Lynch in corporate banking. Yet again, we have the opportunity to lead a number of landmark transactions in both financing, as well as in cash, treasury and liquidity management.
On screen copy: What do you expect to see for the rest of the year?
	As we go into the second half we have a different scenario, we have lowering rates, we have more volatility. What does it mean? Two opportunities to think about. Firstly, optimizing liquidity management. With a low euro rate environment, negative rates, there is value in further optimizing in country, regionally and globally, your multi-currency liquidity positions. Secondly, which are the banks able to support you with financing in good times and in bad times and help you integrate businesses on a global scale? We, at

	Bank of America Merrill Lynch, with our global presence, our treasury solutions, and our financing capabilities, are here to help you throughout the Bank of America Merrill Lynch network on a global basis.
